Help Peace become our Community's next Resilience HUB!

This year, Peace is seeking to raise $200,000+ to invest in energy efficient improvements for our 23-year old Ann Arbor facility on North Maple Road — making it possible for Peace to provide a safe place and critical support services for our families & surrounding community during disruptions, power outages, and other emergencies.

Each year, Peace's main facility serves over 16,000 meals and hosts a range of programs, community services and events for over 5,000+ youth, adults, and families.

Peace is currently working with the City of Ann Arbor's Office of Sustainability & Innovation to become a Resilience HUB for Ann Arbor's west side.

A recent energy audit of Peace's facility identified a comprehensive list of energy efficient improvements with an estimated cost of over $460,000. All together, planned building renovations will help reduce the agency's energy consumption & carbon footprint, upgrade the building's technology systems, and set the stage for renewable energies — saving the agency at least $30,000 in annual operating and maintenance costs.

An invaluable investment in Peace's long-term future sustainability!

Over 89% of Peace's staff identify as people of color and have similar lived experiences as the people we serve. Our staff has a deep understanding of the challenges our families face—which is essential in cultivating a genuine sense of trust, respect, and accountability with our clients.

Because of that trust, Peace is the first place our clients call with their best news and their worst.
